Tampa Herald: The Escambia county convention was quite explicit in its instructions. It instructed its delegates to the state convention to support no candidate for delegate to the national convention who was not unreservedly pledged for Bryan. It instructed for Mays for governor and Sparkman for congress. The democrats of Escambia know what they want and they intend to have it, which is entirely right. The example of Escambia is a good one to follow.

The Old Maid's convention at the opera house to-night should be witnessed by everybody. Tickets are now on sale at Coe's—50 cents for general admission, $1 for reserved seats. The proceeds will be for the benefit of Christ Church Guild.

Weather Conditions.

The barometer depression observed in Western Texas yesterday has developed into a disturbance that is central this morning south of Galveston. It will move rapidly eastward, causing rain and brisk to high easterly winds on the east Gulf coast.

Another low area has appeared in the Northwest, and under these conditions a continuation of unsettled and rainy weather is indicated for this vicinity to-night and Friday. Jacksonville had a rainfall of 4.78 inches during the past 24 hours; Augusta, 2.42, and Macon 2.70 inches. Lesser amounts occurred in other portions of the Gulf states, and in the Atlantic states and Lake region. Brisk to high easterly winds will prevail on the Gulf coast.
